Another Reduction In Oil

The Standard Oil Company has announced another reduction in the price of their Naptha and gasoline. Naptha now selling at 16 1/2 cents in bulk, and 23 cents in cases; Gasoline 17 1/2 cents in bulk and 24 cents in cases. This is a drop of a half cent per gallon in both kinds of oil. The Standard Oil Company are certainly trying to do their best for the fishermen and others ever since they came to Wrangell have made steady reductions in all kinds of oil. The sale of the local agency is around 1500 gallons per day and is steadily on the increase as the various outsiders learn that they can get oil so cheap in Wrangell.

Well Known Mild Curer Marries

M. B. Dahl one of the well known mild curers of this section arrived up from a trip to the Sound last Friday. And to the greatest surprise of his friends came back a married man. Mr. Dahl was married in Tacoma, Wash. Saturday July 11. The Dahl's will make Wrangell their future home, and the Sentinel joins with his many friends in wishing them both a long and happy married life.

Canoe Trip From Telegraph

Walter Marriott, B. O. Albertson and S. A. Fletcher arrived in Wrangell yesterday evening about 4 o'clock from Telegraph, having made the trip down in a canoe. The party left Telegraph at 5 A. M. Tuesday and landed in Wrangell at 4 P. M. Wednesday, making very good time for a canoe. Mr. Marriott and Mr. Albertson are Telegraph men while Mr. Fletcher is a Provincial Government official and boarded the Spokane for Skagway on his way to Atlin.

Mr. Marriott and Mr. Albertson are great boosters for that section of the country and predict great things before the next year is over. According to their statement the most promising is the Boulder Creek property, and that it is being worked with a capacity crew day and night, handling a great deal of rich dirt.

Tom Case has placed a very interesting exhibit of old curios in his Ice Cream Parlor this week. The curios contain a number of old guns and other things of the early Alaskan days.

E. S. Hewitt, the Alaska Manager for the L. C. Smith typewriters is a business caller in town.

Expert Examining Groundhog Basin

Property of Marshal Grant----Favorable Report will Mean Great Thing.

If the expert investigation that is now going on of the mines in the Groundhog Basin is of a favorable nature the properties will be taken over by the Alaska Gastineau Mining Co., in the next few months and unlimited capital furnished for their development.

The properties belong to Mr. W. D. Grant and considerable work has been done on them already. A. D. Nash, consulting engineer for the above company has been on the ground for some time, and after being in Wrangell for a few days will return there to make a thorough and comprehensive examination of these claims for his company.

The opening up and working of these claims means much to this section of the country for there are mountains of low grade ore in addition to the higher grades, that can be profitably worked once a company with sufficient capital takes hold and opens this rich section of the country. And if the Alaska Gastineau takes hold of them it will mean that they will be opened up in the near future, but much remains on the report that Mr. Nash makes of the ground whether that company will take hold of them or not, but it is the under feeling of all concerned that the report will be very favorable and before many months the Groundhog Basin will be one of the rich mining sections of South-eastern Alaska.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the primary election for the purpose of electing three delegates to the Democratic Territorial Convention to be held at Skagway, Alaska, August 3rd, 1914. Said primary election will be held at the Town Hall, Wrangell, Alaska, July 25th at 7:30 P. M.

By order of the Committee.
N. J. Svindseth,
E. P. Lynch,
H. J. Wallace.

Will Pack Salmon In Glass Jars

The Swift-Arthur-Crosby Company, which operates the cannery at Warm Chuck, on Heceta Island will try the experiment this season of packing Red salmon in glass jars, two thousand of which arrived at the cannery recently. The jars which will each hold one pound of salmon, are fitted with automatic sealing tops. The company hopes that the Red salmon will present such an exceedingly attractive appearance in these jars that a better price will be obtained than for those packed in tin cans.

Ketchikan Democrats Hold Caucus

The Progressive Democrats held their caucus in Ketchikan Wednesday, July 15, and nominated S. E. Milligan of Ketchikan for the Senate, and Frank Thompson of Craig, and N. J. Svindseth of Wrangell, for Representatives.

The Columbia & Northern Co. have placed the Ida May on the ways near the cold storage and are getting her ready to go after the elusive salmon.

Breaks Arm At Cannery

Manager Barnes of the Lake Bay cannery was in town last Tuesday and varified a rumor of a lady getting her arm broke at that cannery. The J. B. Stetson had just called at the cannery and among her passengers was Mrs. Claude D. Starr, wife of Manager Starr of the Mouri Sound Cannery and a sister of Mr. Barnes, when the boat was landed Mrs. Starr ran down the gang plank and started to go through the cannery to meet her brother when she slipped and fell and in the act throwing out her arm to catch herself and broke her right arm. The cannery tender had just left for Wrangell and the Stetson tried to stop her by whistling but the boat was too far out and so Mrs. Starr was placed on the Stetson and taken to Ketchikan for medical treatment.

Will Spend The Summer Here

Harry Whitaker and Arthur Connor, of Newark, Ohio, arrived up on the Humboldt last Friday and will spend the summer fishing and hunting in this section. The boys are friends of Mr. U. G. Parks, the Merchant Tailor of that city who spent the summer here three years ago and ever since has been a good Alaska booster.

Big Mining Man Coming

A wire was received in Wrangell yesterday from J. G. Galvin who it will be remembered went outside some time ago with considerable gold for the purpose of getting a Keystone Drill to prospect the various claims under his management to better advantage, that he would be in Wrangell about the first of August and that to make arrangements with a river boat to be ready to take some five tons of freight to Telegraph. This means another big jump forward for the Dease Lake country, the time has come when capital is needed to bring out the country and men like Mr. Galvin are needed to make this country a success in the mining world.

Go To Ketchikan After Dynamite

The Karen with Capt. Johansen and N. J. Svindseth aboard left yesterday evening for Ketchikan where they go to get a half ton of powder to take up the Stikine to Telegraph. They expect to be gone a couple of days and will leave for Telegraph as soon as they get back from their present trip.

THE WRANGELL SENTINEL

Lovers' Presents in Spain.
Spanish lovers present their fiancées with fans on which they have written the most impassioned poetry, embroidered garters with love mottoes woven in silk and innumerable boxes of sweets. Engagement rings are not given, the bride elect receiving instead a gold medal, which she wears suspended from a chain around her neck.

Taking a Chance.
"Is that picture one of the old masters you were telling me about?" asked Mr. Cumrox.
"Yes," replied the art dealer. "It is a genuine treasure—absolutely authentic."
"I'll buy it. I already have three just like it, and somewhere in the bunch I'm liable to hit the original."—Washington Star.

The Most Accurate Frontier.
As an instance of the jealousy existing in the relations between Norway and Sweden it may be noted that the boundary line between the two countries is the most minutely exact in Europe. In every parish touched by the line there is deposited an elaborate plan which is renewed every ten years, the whole of the work of surveying, etc., being carefully repeated each time.

Frail Human Nature.
The judge was in a rage. "I hear," he thundered, "that bets have been made on the result of this case. I won't have such a state of things. All gambling must be stopped within the jurisdiction of this court."
"Bet you a fiver it can't be done!" said the counsel for the defense.
"Put up your money," said the judge reaching for his purse.—Pearson's.

At Her Word.
"Why do you not come to me for advice any more?" said the medium to her former regular customer.
"Well," said he, "the last time I was there you told me that if I wished to save enough to get married on I must stop spending money foolishly, and I took you at your word."—New York Press.

One Family of 20,000,000.
The rapidity with which rats multiply is the main reason why man appears to make so little headway in their destruction. It is calculated that a single pair of rats and their progeny, breeding without interruption and suffering no losses, would in three years increase to more than 20,000,000.—Baker's Weekly.

Realistic.
Mrs. Brush—Did you see my husband's painting, "The Country Road," at the exhibition?
Mrs. Painter—No, I did not. Was it good?
"Why, it was so natural they had to oil the road every day to keep the dust from going on everything."—Yonkers Statesman.

Landlord and Tenants.
Visitor (at poorhouse)—Where did that fine looking pauper come from?
Superintendent—The city. He owns the St. Fashion flats.
"My goodness! Why is he here?"
"He charges such high rents that they have been empty since the second year."
"Hum! He seems to be on familiar footing with a good many of the other paupers."
"Yes; they are the people who were his tenants the first year."—Buffalo News.

Napoleon Before the Convention.
When Barras introduced Napoleon to the convention as a fit man to be in trusted with the command the president asked:
"Are you willing to undertake the defense of the convention?"
"Yes," was the reply.
After a time the president continued, "Are you aware of the magnitude of the undertaking?"
"Perfectly," replied Napoleon, fixing his eyes upon his questioner, "and I am in the habit of accomplishing that which I undertake."

LIGHTEN YOUR CARES.
Quick is the succession of human events. The cares of today are seldom the cares of tomorrow, and when we lie down at night we may safely say to most of our troubles, "Ye have done your worst, and we shall meet no more."—Cowper.

An Afterthought.
"Ye-es," remarked a young husband at breakfast, "these biscuits are pretty good, but don't you think there ought to be a little more?"
"Your mother made them," interrupted the wife quickly.
"—of them?" ended the husband, with a flash of inspiration.

Man is his own star, and that soul that can be honest is the only perfect man.—Fletcher.

Conversational.
Two of the churches in Wellington are located close together, and recently while some one was passing between the two churches on prayer meeting night he heard this spirited dialogue in song:
The congregation of one church was singing, "Will there be any stars, any stars, in my crown when at evening the sun goeth down?"
And the congregation of the other church, apparently answering the question, was singing, "No, not one; no, not one."—Kansas City Star.

Why She Was Scandalized.
The young lady, visiting her aunt in the country, came in late one afternoon.
"Where in the world have you been?" asked her aunt.
"In the hammock all afternoon," she responded, "with my beloved Robert Browning."
The aunt eyed her sternly. Then she said, "If I hear of any more such scandalous proceedings I shall certainly write to your mother."—Ladies' Home Journal.

The Judge and the "Barnmaid's Blush."
Judicial ignorance is generally assumed, but there are occasions when a judge is honestly lacking in knowledge. The other day a witness in an Australian court casually mentioned that a certain thing occurred just after he had a "barnmaid's blush." Judge and counsel were for the moment "stuck up" by this hitherto unheard of phrase, but the fact was gradually elicited that it meant a drink compounded of beer and raspberry vinegar.—London Chronicle.

The Drunkard's Cloak.
In the time of the commonwealth in England the magistrates of Newcastle-upon-Tyne punished drunkards by making them carry a tub called the drunkard's cloak. This tub was worn bottom upward, there being a hole at the bottom for the head and two smaller holes in the sides for the hands to pass through, and thus ridiculously attired the delinquent was made to walk through the streets of the town for as long a time as the magistrates thought proper to order, according to the grossness of the offense.

The First Knitting Machine.
Historic mention of hand knitting is first found in the books of the time of Queen Elizabeth, though it is known that it was one of the arts of the Pompeians. The first machine for knitting was the invention of William Lee, who made application for a patent in England in 1589. On being refused a patent by the English authorities he departed for France and soon after set up a large factory at Rouen. The Lee machine, which remained the same as it was 200 years before, was introduced in the colonies during the Revolutionary war. A sharp Yankee improved on it and set up the first United States stocking factory at Cohoes, N. Y., in 1832.

Shaping Our Ends.
The manicurist is the destiny that shapes our ends.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
What's the matter with the chiropractor?—Toledo Blade.
Supreme Court Justice Delany decides that a barber cannot legally practice chiropody. What is needed now is a decision that the domestic razor must not be borrowed for amateur effort of that kind.—New York World.

"The Dream" is the proper place to go when in Ketchikan.

LOCAL BRIEFS

The Dream and the Rink set The Pace.

When in Ketchikan spend an evening at the "The Dream," the house that sets the PACE. All others try to copy.

A big bouncing baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hull this morning. Mother and son reported doing fine.

The Ashlock Hidro Carbon Burner now ready to install in any house or boat, the greatest fuel saver ever invented.—St. Michael Trading Company.

The good ship Wabash was in for repairs the first of the week. Capt. Stackpole reports the fish are running better down near Canoe Pass.

The Gussie L. was launched from the cradle at the Reade Boat Shop last night and will leave for the fishing grounds under the command of Capt. Lindman as soon as supplies can be loaded aboard.

Chas. Fallonsbee, the popular manager of the Fallonsbee barber and cigar stand left last Monday for Tacoma, Wash., where he will spend the next two weeks visiting with friends and relatives.

Leonard Campbell arrived home from Ketchikan last Thursday evening. Leonard has been working in Ketchikan for the past summer but has returned to Wrangell to accept a position with the St. Michael Trading Company.

P. J. Gorman, of the Gorman canning interests came over on the Uncle Dan yesterday from Shakan and took the first boat going to Kasaan. Mr. Gorman reports that the fish are running very slow on the West Coast but is hopeful of a good year.

The Shurick Drug Company's store has undergone some very extensive remodeling during the past week. Dr. Shurick has had removed the old store room in the back and is fixing it up into fine cozy parlor making a very home-like and neat appearance to the store.

Notice of Final Settlement

In the matter of the estate of Grant Henry, Deceased,

Notice is hereby given that I, L. C. Patenaude, the duly appointed Administrator of the above named estate have this day filed with the Probate Court at Wrangell, Alaska, my final account and report, and the Court has fixed August the 10th as the day for the final hearing on said account.

All persons are cited to appear at the Court House at Wrangell on said date at the Hour of 2 o'clock, P. M. and file their objections, if any to said account.

Dated this 9th day of June, 1914

L. C. PATENAUDE,

Administrator.

Les Miserables

A Great Picture

The Rink showed the great picture "Les Miserables" last evening. The picture is without a doubt the finest picture that has ever been put in motion pictures, and when you take into consideration the fact that the picture was taken where the story occurred it is truly wonderful. The Rink will show the "Sea Wolf" by Jack London, in about two weeks, this is another great picture in seven reels; this will be followed by "The Squaw Man" and latter by "Brewsters Millions" all of them great feature pictures.

In another section of this issue is a notice of a Primary Election to be held at the Town Hall, Sat. July 25, 1914 for the purpose of electing three delegates to the Democratic Territorial Convention.

Paper Pneumatic Tires.

According to a foreign periodical, not only is paper a suitable material for the manufacture of wheels for railway wagons, but it may be used for the construction of pneumatic tires, possessing the strength of steel and the "elasticity" of rubber. It is absolutely noiseless, resistant to wet and oil and cheaper than rubber tires.

Governor Asks For Some Action

Wants Good Exhibit for San Francisco Fair

Last week in our columns we stated that the Government had recently made an appropriation for an Alaska Exhibit at the San Francisco Fair, and the following letter was received by the local Chamber of Commerce and deals with this matter so with permission we print it.—Ed.

July 1, 1914
The Wrangell Chamber of Commerce,
Wrangell, Alaska.
Gentlemen:

I desire to call your attention to the necessity that exists for an adequate exhibit of Alaska's natural and other resources at the Panama Pacific International Exposition which will open in San Francisco on February 20, 1915. This necessity becomes more apparent when it is understood that there is only $10,000 available for this purpose, and this amount will be used by the different Bureaus and Departments in Washington in preparing exhibits, and in paying the cost of transportation of exhibits to and from San Francisco. For your further information I have to advise you that the Alaska Exhibits are directly under the control of the Government Exhibit Board, Washington, D. C., of which Honorable Adolph C. Miller is chairman, and this Board will co-operate in every way possible within its means, to the end that Alaska may be represented at the Exposition in a manner befitting its natural resources.

With the extremely limited amount of money available for Alaska's exhibits, it thus becomes absolutely necessary that the people of the different towns and communities of the Territory should render all the aid that they can in the collection and preparation of exhibits for shipment. Unless this be done the Alaska Exhibit promises to be not at all representative of the Territory, and I cannot press to strongly upon you the necessity of prompt and concerted action. The government will pay the cost of transportation of all exhibits from their point of shipment in Alaska to San Francisco and return.

Alaska is entering upon a period of unparalleled development; the proposed construction of a system of government railroads from the coast to the interior at an expenditure of $35,000,000 is a step forward in opening to development of various kinds, of rich and important sections; and this has served to direct the attention of the people of the United States and other countries to this Territory. It means a large influx of people who will make their home here; it means the investment of capital in the mining and other industries, and a large expansion of business generally. The desirability of a complete exhibit of our mineral, fisheries, timber, agricultural and other resources at the San Francisco Exposition should be apparent to all, as such exhibit will be anxious to see for themselves what Alaska is capable of producing and what it promises for the future—therefore the importance of the co-operation of all Alaskans in the work of getting the best exhibits possible.

That there is not an appropriation adequate for the purpose is not the fault of anyone connected with or interested in Alaska's exhibit. A bill has been introduced in the United States Senate appropriating $200,000 for this purpose, but I am doubtful of its passage. However, should it become a law, there will be funds to meet any reasonable expense that may be incurred in collecting and preparing exhibits. But time should not be lost in the mere expectation of an appropriation being secured. The Exposition will open on February 20 next, and exhibits should be ready for shipment not later than November 1, 1914. These exhibits will be placed in a section of the Mines Building, about 5,000 square feet of floor space having been set aside for the purpose.

In view of the foregoing statement it is especially requested that you take up this important matter with the people of your section and enlist their co-operation as patriotic Alaskans interested in the development of the Territory. This office will be pleased to co-operate with you in any way, and any further information bearing on the matter will be promptly transmitted.

Faithfully yours,
A. F. A. STRONG,
Governor.

Falls Overboard Nearly Drowns

What came very near a fatal accident to the party involved happened on the water front early yesterday morning. According to the story Mrs. J. G. Grant was awakened about 4:30 by hearing loud shouting, and on going to the window discovered that the sound came from the water front so she gave the alarm that some one was drowning. Guy Carson was notified and ran down to the dock and discovered a man holding to the piling at the further end of the dock. Mr. Carson ran around to the float and getting a small skin rowed out to the man and after getting him to hold to the stern of the skiff rowed back to the float where with the help of a couple of others who had arrived, they pulled him out of the water. It seems that the man, Ed. Johnson, had accidentally fell off the dock, and not being able to swim got hold of the pile and held on, according to Mr. Johnson's statement he was in the water for two hours before being rescued.
